

Privacy Notice

Trading Services

Trade Waste Services

Trading Services are committed to protecting your privacy when you purchase trade waste services. This Privacy Notice explains how Trading Services collects, uses and protects the personal and business information that we hold. Information may be collected on paper or online form, telephone, email or by a member of our staff. All information is processed in accordance with Data Protection Legislation (GDPR) 2018.

You have provided your personal information to: Trading Services Department, St Helens Council, Hardshaw Brook Depot, Parr Street, St Helens, WA9 1JR.

What is Personal Data

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or with any other information the data controller may hold. The majority of personal data we hold will have been provided to us directly from you.

Who is the data controller and how can I get in touch?

St Helens Council is the data controller.

We have an appointed Data Protection Officer who you can contact via email at: dataprotection@sthelens.gov.uk

What information we collect about you

The trade waste service may collect and/or hold some or all of the following information about you in relation to your contract:

- Personal name, address and contact details
- Relevant business, company or organisation name, address and contact details
- Bank details (when paying for services)
- Correspondence (emails, letters, notes of telephone conversations)
- Invoices and schedule of charges
- Contract documentation & waste transfer notes

Why we collect and use your personal data

We use this information to assess the suitability of an applicant to enter into a trade waste agreement with St Helens Council and to enable contracts to be fulfilled, Including;

- Confirm your identity to provide some services
- Contact you by post, email or telephone
- Understand your needs to provide the services that you request
- Understand what we can do for you and inform you of other relevant services and benefits
- Obtain your opinion about our services
- Update your customer record
- Help us to build up a picture of how we are performing at delivering services to you
- Allow to us to submit data as required to national central public bodies i.e. EA & MRWA
- Make sure we are compliant with statutory obligations, including; diversity and equality.

How we protect and use your information

Information we hold about you will be stored securely and will only be made available to those who have a right to see it.

Council officers working in the waste and recycling section use this information to fulfil the waste collection contract we have with you. It is also used by relevant council departments, such as Accounts and Income, and external agencies where it is lawful and fair to do so. In each case we will only share the minimum amount of information, when required, for reasons already listed in this privacy notice and also:

With other St Helens Council services to:

- Provide advice and assistance to you
- Help carry out their legal duties, including the enforcement of regulations
- Invoicing, billing

In addition, information may be shared with external agencies that we are required to consult with by law to help carry out their legal duties and enforcement of regulations, these may include:

- Environment Agency
- Merseyside Waste Disposal Authority
- Courts
- Other relevant government and enforcement agencies

The lawful basis for processing your information

We process your information for these purposes because it is necessary to carry out the legal functions of administering your trade waste contract and to keep you informed of any changes.

- (a) Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose (in relation to marketing information);
- (b) Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract with an individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract;
- (c) Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law;
 - Environmental Protection Act 1990
 - The Waste (Duty of Care) Regulations 2005 and 2011
 - Any other relevant legislation.
 - St Helens Council's Financial Regulations
 - St Helens Council Policies
 - The enforcement of regulations

Marketing

St Helens Council Trading Services may contact you relating to the services provided. This personal data is collected only where you provide your consent that you wish to be informed.

How long we keep your data

Data is not held any longer than is necessary and the council follows legal, financial and regulatory requirements as well as professional best practice on how long information should be kept before destruction or archiving.

Service	Term
General Trade Waste Enquiries	4 years
Purchase of Goods or Services	Full term of service provided plus 7 years
Waste Transfer Notes	3 years

What rights do I have in relation to my data?

You have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact our Data Protection Officer, whose details are above.

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means
- Have inaccurate data rectified
- In certain circumstances, have personal data blocked, erased or destroyed;

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance.

Alternatively, if you are not satisfied with the resolution of your complaint then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (Tel: 0303 123 1113, Online: <https://ico.org.uk/>, Post: Information Commissioner, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF)

Changes to our Privacy Notice

We regularly review our privacy notice and encourage you to check it from time to time. This notice was last updated in February 2020.
